

Paralegals

Comasters employs a number of paralegals who assist Jeffrey, Sarah, Alicia and John in fulfilling clients' requirements.

Fees and Expenses

We are always happy to discuss new matters initially on the telephone without obligation. Our clients are usually advised in advance an estimate of fees and expenses that will be incurred for completing the work required.

If an unexpected event develops that requires a change to our original estimated fees, we will inform our clients immediately and seek further instructions.
